WHEN WILL I GET PAID?

You reserve your earnings now. You withdraw your earnings over time.

Some people will be able to withdraw some earnings within 60 days. Most people will be able to withdraw some earnings later in 2019, and continue to get paid until they have received the full amount - it could take a couple of years.

Withdrawing earnings is based on when bUnited gets paid by companies giving discounts to bUnited members. This will vary by what country you are in, how fast the membership grows there, and the speed at which companies sign up.

You can simply check your account page to know when you can withdraw some or all of your earnings.

AVAILABILITY IN YOUR COUNTRY

The more people you invite to bUnited, the faster we can have associated companies in your country. Therefore, help bUnited to become the biggest customer in your country - invite your friends (and we'll pay you for doing it).

CONTRACT WITH VODAFONE

In February 2019, we signed a contract with Vodafone, which is our first major contract for a total discount. Vodafone gave us the lowest prices in Germany, which is a good example of the agreements that bUnited will negotiate with the most important suppliers of most products and services in most countries.

Vodafone agreed to provide bUnited members with the lowest prices in Germany. All products will have more than 20% discount and for each new contract, Vodafone will finance the rescue of 1000 square meters of the Amazon rainforest.

SELF-SERVICE OF SMALL LOCAL COMPANIES

bUnited will support local businesses.

Saving money and saving the world is not exclusive to large companies. In 2019, we will build a platform where local companies can enter their offers for bUnited members. In this way, bUnited members can enjoy the benefits of the large number of members and also support local providers in their communities.

JOIN UP

All entrepreneurs know and fear these six words: There are no Clients - There is no Company. As clients, we already have all the necessary power to win. Imagine if someone wakes up tomorrow and decides to only buy at Costco and never again buy at Walmart - Costco wins and Walmart (or McDonalds or Shell Oil or any other company for that effect) bankruptcy. Bankruptcy in one day. That's all the power we have if we act together.

ASSOCIATIONS TO OBTAIN LOW PRICES

We are not against big companies. We want to associate with the correct ones.

Everyone knows that big companies give better treatment to large groups than individuals; from lines to register faster in airports, to discounts to large groups in cell phones, cars, and insurance. By joining bUnited, you will be part of the largest group of clients in the world. We are not creating tens of thousands of united customers; we are a movement that is uniting millions and tens of millions of customers.

HAVE A BETTER WORLD

Protect our environment, provide food, water and medical care to the needy in the world, and ensure that the powerful are not taking advantage of the poor and weak - this is what bUnited can achieve.

As individual clients, we do not have the time or the power to achieve real changes; bUnited has both. Our world faces urgent problems that we can only change if we are united. By partnering with and rewarding companies that want to solve these problems, bUnited members can achieve real large-scale changes in the world - not an eco-bleach, but a substantive change.

REWARD TO REAL SUSTAINABILITY

It is time to hear a new voice in our economy, the voice of customers.

And customers must have the strongest voice, because we provide all the money that companies need to operate. We vote with our money. We use the power of our combined consumer money to reward good companies with our purchases. The companies that actually give us, and our planet the respect we deserve.

OUR TEAM

We are excited. Our team has experience and dedication. And the basis of our membership is diverse.

OUR HISTORY

How it started bUnited.

WHAT WE SEE

bUnited is the result of the frustration we see around the world.

In most countries people are disappointed with their governments. There is not much action to the extent that our world becomes more unjust and unsustainable. And big companies do not help - they often treat us badly and also treat the environment badly while seeking to obtain the profits that the competitive world demands.

And We (in the sense of We the People of the Planet), seem unable to "fix it".

bUnited changes all that.

THE IDEA

Johannes, Ozan, and I are entrepreneurs, (two with Master's degrees in Business Administration from Stanford and one Fulbright Scholar). We have all worked in large and small companies. We know that most of the people who run these companies are not bad. They only go for 'Money'.

And what is really what moves companies? - It's 'Money'. With money they can hire people, buy goods and services and everything else. Therefore, Money is the true leader of the business.

We (in the sense of We the People), are the largest suppliers of Money for business. More than 60% of the global economy is the customer's expense.

This means, We (in the sense of We the People) already have the power we need to 'fix' the evils we see in the world today.

All we need is join.

bUNITED

To make bUnited good not only for the people who join, but also for the companies that partner with bUnited, we work with:

- Thousands of customers in more than 50 countries.
- Large companies in various industries.

We learned a lot and one result was the creation of We will pay for Uniting. Companies are spending billions of dollars on advertising with Google and Facebook (and others). When we talked to them, we discovered that if they could, they would prefer to give that money to their customers.

bUnited allows them to do exactly that.

TOWARDS WHERE WE ARE GOING

The promise of bUnited is quite big. 'Everyone is going to join, there is no reason not to do it.' Professor Steve Cohen said that 'bUnited allows a totally new force in the economy, the client. And the client will then be really the King.'

We recently signed a large contract with Vodafone in Germany. It is a good example of what can be achieved. They believe in bUnited, even before we are big enough to be your biggest customer, they have given us prices that are lower than any price in Germany for their products and services.

As our membership grows, our power grows. We will be able to reward the associated companies with a huge number of new clients. In return, we want not only the lowest prices and the best service, but also real changes in business practices. We can reward companies for their environmentally sustainable processes - and we can verify to ensure that they are actually doing what they said they were going to do.

Therefore the expectations are great. Our goal is to comply with them.
